The first language you learn to speak is called your native language. As a baby, you listened to your parents or other people speaking and then told the sounds you heard. Native speakers learn as children to use the right order without even thinking about it. If English is your....53.....tongue, you certainly know that "I'm going bed" is wrong, but "I'm going to bed" is right. If you learn a second language, you have to learn its words and ....54.... That's why learning a second language can be difficult. Young children can learn a new language very easily. If they are among people speaking a different language, they soon learn to speak it ......55..... their native language. But as people grow older, it becomes more difficult to learn new.....56..... People lose the ability to learn the grammar, words and the sounds of another language.
